Serial No

From the D.C. Quorn District Leicester Rec 1543/42-3-8 10.11.42, requests sanction to application of the Thurmaston Mines Magistrates to stock and sell foodstuffs to the value of £500/- the same being sent out from Group Balance

1) The proposal the sinking of the Kuesand perhaps lettering the processes of the Department of Civil Supplies though the purpose is sound, the Director of Civil Supplies is perhaps to be consulted as the sinking appears

2) It is not known whether the applicants have any stock from which sales can be opened at Thurmaston for the sale of certain essential articles at fair prices At any rate the M.C.C. can do little or nothing by sending £500/- as this item & no relief could be distributed be given to the poor people in this Town It seems of a Govt grant report would be the best thing in this Jubilee Headquarters

3) The proposals of the M.C.C. are not in detail or quite clear The D.C. has not stated his opinion on the proposed measure Hence the Ministry of Civil Supplies may be asked comments on the receipt of the M.C.C. Law Secy 16.11.42
